Dear Saginaw Arts and Sciences Academy Applicant and Parent:

Thank you for considering the Saginaw Arts and Sciences Academy (SASA). For the 2010-2011 academic year SASA students will have the option of attending full or part time. Students selecting the half day option will also have a “home school.” For 2010-2011, the full day option is available to students in grades 6 through 12.

It is our intention to assist you in selecting the option which best complements your individual needs, interests and abilities. Do not hesitate to contact us if we may be of assistance in completing this application procedure.

Application Directions: (This form is also available for download at the SASA website at www.sasa-academy.org)

1. Complete pages 1 and 2. Call SASA to schedule your test date. (See reverse side for dates and details.)
2. Return two completed “Evaluation Checklist” recommendation forms from teachers and/or other responsible adults who know the student, his/her abilities and accomplishments. Follow the directions on the “Evaluation Checklist” recommendation form (teacher forms are available under “How to Apply” at www.sasa-academy.org)
3. Obtain a transcript that includes both your academic and attendance records from the current or most recent school.
4. Return completed application along with current year transcript(s) and “Evaluation Checklist” forms to: SASA (address above)

WED., FEBRUARY 17, 2010
 6:30-8pm SASA Auditorium.
 All Invited!

Incomplete applications will NOT be considered for admission until all required items are received in the SASA office. Required application items include: TWO (2) completed teacher evaluations provided on required SASA checklist forms, a current year report card with relevant attendance and discipline data, and a completed SASA written test scheduled by phone and taken on one of the above dates. Auditions and portfolio presentations will be scheduled separately for visual and performing arts Concentration applicants only AFTER ALL OTHER items are received by SASA. (Auditions are required for Art, Dance, Voice/Keyboard, Theatre applicants).

Placement in preferred Concentration programs is not assured to ANY applicant. Current SASA students in good standing receive first consideration for placement in any available spaces in next year's classes; they apply in February and are considered through March for 2010-11 placement. Acceptance for new students will begin in March, availability of openings in Concentrations lessens in all programs after March 1. DO NOT DELAY in scheduling an entry test date and submitting application materials — spaces are limited in all programs and at all grade levels.

TO THE STUDENT APPLICANT ONLY: Write a brief statement describing your specific interest in the program concentration, including past experience and any future goals.

Are there existing conditions and/or special needs for your child which should be considered in processing this application?

Yes No If yes, please explain: (i.e., 504 plan, IEP, ADHD, etc.)
